First results of the ETHNA System implementation process shared in Sofia

At a critical stage in the ETHNA System project, the consortium partners were brought together in Sofia, Bulgaria to exchange experiences on the implementation of the system in six partner organisations. For a project tackling institutional level change, the workshop successfully demonstrated tangible first results and valuable lessons to guide the project forward. Find out the major breakthroughs on developing the ETHNA legacy and fostering RRI institutionalisation from the two-day workshop in Sofia.
